Touch Football Gala Day at Walgett

A day trip to Walgett always makes for a BIG day. Both our teams displayed exemplary sportsmanship and we left with nothing but BIG wins in every way. The level of skill on display from Warialda players was highly proficient and admired by spectators. Every team member made great contributions throughout. Thanks to the Walgett school and community for their hospitality. We look forward to our next knockout rounds.

Our very own stars

Our very own Bill McIntosh, Lachlan McIntosh, Isabella McIntosh and Warialda Public's Mrs McIntosh performed in the recent Oliver Twist production at the Roxy in Bingara. Mr Mack was unrecognisable as the unsavoury leader of a pickpocket gang while Lachlan pulled off a fantastic performance as seemingly well-to-do member of the gang. Mrs McIntosh wowed us all with her beautiful vocals and Isabella glued the entire production together as the tortured do-the-right-thing character between good and evil. We are so proud of our stars!
